

The American Indian Measurable Success Initiative promotes Native American student readiness for post-secondary and workforce success.

Opening Doors for Native American Students

AIMS COMMUNITY BRIEFING AND RECEPTION

---

Monday, February 12, 2018 • 5-7 p.m.

Fort Lewis College • Durango, CO

Vallecito Room 103 in Student Union Building

Hosted by Fort Lewis College President Dr. Dene Kay Thomas

Learn how AIMS Collective Impact Initiative brings together partners in education to prepare Native American students for post-secondary and workforce success.

Hear about the first year results with a significant increase of college attainment, and the difference AIMS is making in Native Student academic achievement and workforce skills.

These AIMS partners extend this cordial invitation to you:

Colorado Education Initiative
Southern Ute Tribe • Ute Mountain Ute Tribe
Fort Lewis College • Southwest Colorado Community College
San Juan Board of Cooperative Educational Services • TRiO
Durango 9R, Ignacio, and Montezuma-Cortez School Districts
Community Foundation Serving SW Colorado
Business and Community Members

Please RSVP to Mary Rubadeau at mrubadeau@gmail.com

